

EARLY 500,000
People
Buy
The World
Daily
SITUATION
Twenty
Words for 10 CTS.
FREE IN THE
EVENING WORLD.
PRICE ONE CENT.

SITUATION ADS.
In To-Morrow's
WORLD
Go
2,000,000
and Nearly
500,000
FREE
Ev'g World
PEOPLE READ
THE WORLD.
Buy It
Every Day.
PRICE ONE CENT.

LAST EDITION. SENATOR HILL FEELS HURT.

A Report that He Blames Shepard for a Demand that He Refuse to Run.

HIS OVERTURES TO THE LATTER

Said to Have Even Offered to Let Mim Name the Candidate for Governor.

BASIS OF A RUMOR ABOUT GAYNOR

The Senator Holds a Conference
With Bourke Cockran and
Geo. B. McClellan.

That Senator David B. Hill is not altogether satisfied with the work of his Harmony cohort may be gathered from the statement that he was not this morning in so good a humor as he appeared yesterday.

His attention had been called to a two-column editorial in the Brooklyn Eagle of the date of yesterday, practically demanding of him that he decline the nomination, so that the State Committee could offer the nomination to Justice William J. Gaynor. The editorial was uncompromising in tone to the Senator, and laudatory of Justice Gaynor.

The editor of the paper is very close to Justice Gaynor and to Edward M. Shepard, and in view of the advances and offers the Senator has made through his agents to Mr. Shepard, he is said to feel that the latter might have at least prevented so deliberate an insult.

It is stated on pretty good authority that when Mr. Hill came to town on the morning of yesterday he was sent to Mr. Shepard to know what could be done to heal the differences between the latter and the machine managers.

He offered to see to it that the Shepards should have representation on the State Committee. That was refused. He then offered to use his influence to secure a division of the local offices in which the Shepards should share. This offer was also refused.

The Senator then instructed his agents to say to Mr. Shepard that his stand in favor of a third ticket indicated that nothing would suit him but the privilege of naming the Democratic candidate for Governor, and that Mr. Hill was willing to decline the nomination and let the Anti select the candidate, if by so doing harmony could be secured.

Mr. Shepard didn't accept this either. He may have thought the Senator made the offer as a fine piece of sarcasm, but it is believed in other quarters that Mr. Hill made it in good faith.

Then what did Mr. Shepard want? Nothing, that is, nothing but fight, as the editorial in question seems to indicate to Mr. Hill.

It may be set down as a fact that this last offer of Mr. Hill caused the talk that he intended to decline the nomination in favor of Justice Gaynor.

The Senator was up bright and early this morning and ready for the political business ahead of him. The only visitors at his rooms in the Hotel Normandie were Bourke Cockran and Col. George B. McClellan.

Cockran dropped in at 9 o'clock, and was immediately shown up to the Senator's apartments. He was followed by McClellan half an hour later.

The three held a consultation on the political situation, which lasted for over two hours.

There were no other callers of prominence, and nothing occurred to interrupt the council of the three leaders.

At Democratic headquarters, at the Park Avenue Hotel, it was given out that Secretary Charles De Forest had gone to Albany to get together a stock of tables and chairs and other paraphernalia necessary to the furnishing of the apartments. He will return to-night.

Just before noon Bourke Cockran left Mr. Hill and hurried downtown. His evident haste gave rise to a suspicion that he carried instructions from Senator Hill to some of the Tammany leaders.

Mr. Hill then drove over to the Murdock Hill Hotel with Railroad Commissioner Beardsley, presumably for a conference with Major Hinckley.

During his absence District Attorney Ridgway and State Committee member Hill, of Brooklyn, waited for the Senator's return. Mr. Ridgway was asked some questions by an Evening World reporter about the political situation in the County. Mr. Ridgway declined to talk on the subject, saying that he had hurried away from his court duties to see Mr. Hill, and hadn't time to discuss politics.

Upon leaving Senator Hill Bourke Cockran went direct to the City Hall, where he met Mayor Gilroy, President of the Police Board James J. Martin and Corporation Counsel Clark, of the Tammany Committee.

Julius Dugro and De Lancey Nicoll, ranged all the gentlemen in the room. All the gentlemen in the room were in Mayor Gilroy's private office, which could not be ascertained. The appearance upon the scene of Judge Dugro created some commotion, as it was his first visit to the City Hall in years.

FAINTED AWAY IN COURT.

Lawyer George Willis Arraigned for Attempting Suicide.

Did a Roosevelt Surgeon Overlook a Fractured Skull.

George Willis, twenty-nine, a lawyer, of Brooklyn, fainted away in Yorkville Police Court to-day when arraigned on a charge with having attempted suicide at midnight last night by jumping off the dock at the foot of West Forty-eighth street.

Instead of dropping into the river he fell on the dock, landing on the left side of his head, cutting an ugly gash on the forehead and over the eye.

According to Policeman John Quinn, of the West Forty-seventh street station, he was called off his post by the captain of the canal-boat, who said he was aroused from his sleep by hearing something heavy falling on the dock, and on making an examination he found a young man bleeding from his head, who he wanted to commit suicide.

Quinn said that he found the would-be suicide still lying on the dock, and that he was running in his talk and apparently drunk. He either would not or could not speak coherently, and an ambulance was called from Roosevelt Hospital.

The surgeon on making an examination did not consider the wounds of much account, and after bandaging the man's head, drove back to the hospital. The policeman then took Willis to the station-house, where he was kept under watch for the rest of the night.

He looked dazed as he was led in front of Justice McMahon, in court, and when asked whether he had tried to commit suicide, he faintly gasped, "I fell," and then swooned. The magistrate adjourned the hearing and had a "curry call" to Bellevue Hospital for an ambulance.

Willis revived before the ambulance arrived, but he did not say anything about himself. He would neither admit nor deny that Willis was his right name, and he would not publish anything in the newspapers, as his wife said that she was at a gulf.

The Bellevue Hospital surgeon when asked whether the injured man had a cally demanding of him that he decline the nomination, so that the State Committee could offer the nomination to Justice William J. Gaynor. The editorial was uncompromising in tone to the Senator, and laudatory of Justice Gaynor.

The editor of the paper is very close to Justice Gaynor and to Edward M. Shepard, and in view of the advances and offers the Senator has made through his agents to Mr. Shepard, he is said to feel that the latter might have at least prevented so deliberate an insult.

It is stated on pretty good authority that when Mr. Hill came to town on the morning of yesterday he was sent to Mr. Shepard to know what could be done to heal the differences between the latter and the machine managers.

He offered to see to it that the Shepards should have representation on the State Committee. That was refused. He then offered to use his influence to secure a division of the local offices in which the Shepards should share. This offer was also refused.

The Senator then instructed his agents to say to Mr. Shepard that his stand in favor of a third ticket indicated that nothing would suit him but the privilege of naming the Democratic candidate for Governor, and that Mr. Hill was willing to decline the nomination and let the Anti select the candidate, if by so doing harmony could be secured.

Mr. Shepard didn't accept this either. He may have thought the Senator made the offer as a fine piece of sarcasm, but it is believed in other quarters that Mr. Hill made it in good faith.

Then what did Mr. Shepard want? Nothing, that is, nothing but fight, as the editorial in question seems to indicate to Mr. Hill.

It may be set down as a fact that this last offer of Mr. Hill caused the talk that he intended to decline the nomination in favor of Justice Gaynor.

The Senator was up bright and early this morning and ready for the political business ahead of him. The only visitors at his rooms in the Hotel Normandie were Bourke Cockran and Col. George B. McClellan.

Cockran dropped in at 9 o'clock, and was immediately shown up to the Senator's apartments. He was followed by McClellan half an hour later.

The three held a consultation on the political situation, which lasted for over two hours.

There were no other callers of prominence, and nothing occurred to interrupt the council of the three leaders.

At Democratic headquarters, at the Park Avenue Hotel, it was given out that Secretary Charles De Forest had gone to Albany to get together a stock of tables and chairs and other paraphernalia necessary to the furnishing of the apartments. He will return to-night.

Just before noon Bourke Cockran left Mr. Hill and hurried downtown. His evident haste gave rise to a suspicion that he carried instructions from Senator Hill to some of the Tammany leaders.

Mr. Hill then drove over to the Murdock Hill Hotel with Railroad Commissioner Beardsley, presumably for a conference with Major Hinckley.

During his absence District Attorney Ridgway and State Committee member Hill, of Brooklyn, waited for the Senator's return. Mr. Ridgway was asked some questions by an Evening World reporter about the political situation in the County. Mr. Ridgway declined to talk on the subject, saying that he had hurried away from his court duties to see Mr. Hill, and hadn't time to discuss politics.

Upon leaving Senator Hill Bourke Cockran went direct to the City Hall, where he met Mayor Gilroy, President of the Police Board James J. Martin and Corporation Counsel Clark, of the Tammany Committee.

Julius Dugro and De Lancey Nicoll, ranged all the gentlemen in the room. All the gentlemen in the room were in Mayor Gilroy's private office, which could not be ascertained. The appearance upon the scene of Judge Dugro created some commotion, as it was his first visit to the City Hall in years.

TRYING TO COMBINE.

Brooklyn Republicans Urge a Deal with the Shepard Democrats.

Many of the Regulars Are Opposed to the Scheme.

Arrangements Made for a Conference on Saturday Night.

Circulars were sent out by Benjamin F. Blair, chairman of the Republican General Committee of Kings County, this morning, calling upon members of the organization to use a deal with the Shepard wing of the Democracy.

Mayor Schieren and Mr. Blair have arranged for a conference Saturday night between leading Republicans, to consider the advisability of formally making such a proposition to the Shepard people.

The matter has already been suggested to Edward M. Shepard, but he has refused to express any opinion upon the subject.

Most of the regular Republicans are opposed to any such deal being made, and say that there will be a lively scene if the conference is held Saturday night. They oppose it because the Shepard people will not consider such proposition unless they can share the nominations.

The most prominent among those opposed to the scheme, are Sheriff Billy Butting and John J. McGinness, Clerk to the Superior-at-Large.

Secretary Edwards, of the Shepard Democracy, said this morning that he understood the Republicans were to make some overtures to the party, but he refused to say anything more.

Owing to the reorganization plan of the Republican party in Kings County, the returns in Brooklyn this morning of the primaries held last night did not show a victory for either the Willis or Butting factions. Both sides, however, claimed a victory.

Interest is now centered on the candidates for County Register, which is the first office to be filled. The Convention will be held next Wednesday night in the Clermont Hotel, and it is expected that a large number of delegates will be in the field for the nomination. T. B. Wurzler and R. H. Seaborn are expected that a majority of the delegates elected last night will be his friends.

Mr. Willis, "and I will be nominated on the first ballot. There is no question about it," said Sheriff Butting, who he couldn't tell who would win a victory by the returns.

In the Twenty-third ward, the friends of Deputy Police Commissioner Granville W. Harmon claim to control the delegates from the ward. Deputy Harmon is looked upon as a strong candidate for the office.

Other candidates who will be placed in the field for the nomination are Charles M. Steins and R. H. Seaborn. Butting is booming Sedgwick for the office, and the Twenty-third Ward delegates are expected to range for an ambulance.

There were delegates elected in the 68 districts, and over 70,000 votes were counted. The result of the vote was that the Willis faction won.

The city convention will be held next Wednesday night, and on Friday the Congressional convention will be held. The friends of Charles G. Bennett say he will be elected to Congress from the Fifth District.

FIVE DEAD AT A FIRE.

Four Detroit Firemen and a Spectator Fatally Crushed.

An $80,000 Blaze with a Long List of Victims.

(By Associated Press.)
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 5.—Fire broke out in Keenan & Jahn's furniture house at 7.20 o'clock to-day, and was brought under control after two hours of hard work.

Keenan & Jahn's loss will reach $80,000, insured for $50,000. Loss on building, owned by Traugott Schmidt, estimated at $20,000, fully insured.

Three firemen have been taken out dead and three badly injured. One is still in the ruins and dead.

The loss of life was due to the sudden falling of the front wall of the building into Woodward avenue, while the firemen were working there.

A spectator was fatally hurt.

The list of the dead is as follows:
Lieut. MICHAEL H. DONOGHUE, of Chemical No. 1, taken out dead.
RICHARD DELLY, fireman of Engine 9, crushed to death.
JOHN PAGEL, fireman of No. 9, crushed to death.
FREDERICK A. RUSSEY, a spectator, taken to Grace Hospital and died.
MIKE BOYLE, fireman of No. 9, still in the ruins.

These are the injured:
Mike Gray, taken to Grace Hospital, so badly injured about the head that he may die.
Lieut. O'Rourke, of Engine No. 4; Fireman F. Stock, No. 8; Fireman C. Cronin, No. 8, all badly hurt.

Chief Engineer Hill Can't Tell Where the Harmony Wheel Belongs.

BYRNES BEFORE GRAND JURY.

Mr. Goff Conferred with the Indictment Bureau First.

John W. Goff called at the District-Attorney's office at 10 A. M. to-day. He went straight to the Indictment Bureau and there had a conference with Assistant District-Attorney Battle. Mr. Battle has charge of all matters pertaining to the Grand Jury room and indictments.

Neither Mr. Goff nor Mr. Battle would state why the Lexow attorney had called.

At 11 A. M. Supt. Byrnes entered the Criminal Court building. He first went to the Civil-Service Board room to see Secretary Phillips. He was not in, so the Superintendent went to District-Attorney Battle's office, but the Colonel had not got down.

The Superintendent then went into the office of Assistant District-Attorney Lindsey. He conferred for about fifteen minutes and was then summoned to the Grand Jury room.

He was in the Grand Jury room for twenty minutes. He declined to say whether his visit had anything to do with the police investigation.

It is believed that the presence of Messrs. Goff and Byrnes, that the Grand Jury is about to take up the police investigation as suggested by Judge Cowing.

ORIOLES IN A HUFF.

Baltimore Players Refuse to Sit in a Theatre with Giants.

No Accounting of Gate Money Made to the New York Team.

Stones and Bullets for the Visiting Rooters on the Streets.

(Special to The Evening World.)
BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 5.—This morning opened bright and clear, despite the rain that fell all night, and Manager Henson had his vaunted champions out at Union Park by 11 o'clock drilling them in baseball. Since last evening they have concluded there's something for them yet to learn.

At 12 o'clock two new cranks and fanatics "most do congregate" there in the wildest sort of scramble to find seats. The crowd was estimated at 15,000. McGraw feels so sure he has refused to play to-day, but pressure will be brought to bear upon him and he is likely to back down at the eleventh hour, as he did yesterday.

As an instance of the intense partisanship that prevails, an incident that occurred in front of the Eutaw House last night is worth mentioning. The boys had been cautioned to look out for queer doings, so Westervelt, German, Clark and Wilson guarded the gates sedulously. The New York players agreed to do without passes for their friends, and have asked no favors, but the local people, who have assumed control of the business end of the games, have issued passes galore, and would not sell what they intended to do with cash received.

No doubt it will be duly banded and fairly divided at the end of the series, but it has not endeared the Von Der Horsts to the New York players.

Capt. Ward and about twenty of the players and rooters went to the Lyceum Theatre last night. All the boxes on one side of the house were reserved for them and beautifully decorated in black and white, the club's colors.

Boxes were draped in orange and black and the National colors, and an enormous pennant, bearing from the ceiling, labeled "Baltimore Champions of the United States, 1894."

A formal invitation had been issued to the Orioles, and duly accepted, but they felt so opposed over their defeat that not one appeared or sent a word.

When Ward returned to the Eutaw House he found a bundle of congratulatory despatches and letters from Trevelyan and Secretary Stockhouse were warmly enthusiastic, promising to show the boys what they intended to do with cash received.

When Ward returned to the Eutaw House he found a bundle of congratulatory despatches and letters from Trevelyan and Secretary Stockhouse were warmly enthusiastic, promising to show the boys what they intended to do with cash received.

MUST HAVE THE MATCH.

New York Driving Club's Big Offer for the All-Direction Race.

Samuel McMillan, President of the New York Driving Club, is leaving no stone unturned to bring the All-Direction match to New York. Yesterday, on behalf of the Club, he telegraphed to Orrin Hickok, who is handling the selection of the track where the match is to be trotted within the next twenty-seven days.

President McMillan's message read: "The people, the city and the New York Driving Club want the All-Direction race. Will you all the prize on same if you will come here. You are the champion of the world. Mr. McMillan has not received any reply from Mr. Hickok up to noon to-day, but said he expected to get an answer at any moment."

NEW COUNTERFEIT FOUND.

It is a Five-Dollar Bank Note of Photographic Production.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—A new counterfeit $5 National bank note has been discovered by the Secret Service office of the Treasury Department. The counterfeit is a five-dollar note of the National Bank of New York, dated Jan. 1, 1894, and is a photographic production. The note is a perfect reproduction of the real thing, and is believed to be the work of a professional counterfeiter.

The note is a five-dollar note of the National Bank of New York, dated Jan. 1, 1894, and is a photographic production. The note is a perfect reproduction of the real thing, and is believed to be the work of a professional counterfeiter.

SEEKING HIS FORTUNE.

A Ten-Year-Old Lad Puzzles the Swansea Police.

The police of Swansea, Mass., have sent a telegram to the police of this city, asking them if the parents of John H. Waters, ten years old, who says he lives at 80 Second street, are aware of their son's whereabouts.

At that number no Waters family could be found. Waters told the police of Swansea that his father was drowned a few weeks ago and his mother died a few days later.

"I left New York a week ago to go and look for a fortune," said Waters to the police there.

READY FOR TARRASCH.

Champion Steinitz Will Defend His Title Against Lasker, Too.

(By Associated Press.)
MONTREAL, Quebec, Oct. 5.—Steinitz, the chess champion, writes to a friend here as follows: "A match or a series of games will be arranged between Tarrasch and myself when the former comes to America, and part of these will be played in Montreal."

Lasker is not apt to play me until he sees me on crutches again, but I am happy to say that my walk is still improving, and there is no fear of a relapse. If I do not hear of him by the end of October, I will claim the championship."

LORD ROSEBERY'S STAKES.

His Colt Sir Vista Wins the 5,000 Event at Kempton Park.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Oct. 5.—At Kempton Park to-day the Imperial (Kempton Park) (Great Breeders' Produce) Stakes, of 5,000 sovereigns, was won by Lord Rosebery's Sir Vista.

Float, owned by Daniel Cooper, was second, and Galactia, owned by A. W. Cox, was third.

The winner is a bay colt by Barcaline, out of Vista. The distance is one mile.

The stakes are open to two-year-olds, colts to carry 9 stone and fillies and geldings 8 stone, 11 pounds.

SMITH AND VAN HEEST TO FIGHT.

(By Associated Press.)
BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Arrangements have practically been completed for a meeting in this city between Billy Smith and Johnny Van Heest, representatives of the two met yesterday, and a date will be selected within a couple of days.

Jack Slavin and Jim Daly, the heavy weights, will meet in a fifteen-round bout Nov. 9 under the management of Billy Madison.

PACIFIC COAST WINE CO.

849 Broadway, offers fine wine.

LAST EDITION. LOOK OUT FOR A MIXED TICKET.

The Republicans Have Prepared a Plan to Place One in the Field.

A COMBINE, WITH GRACE OUT.

Strong for Mayor, Goff for Recorder and Independent Democrats for Other Places.

IF THE LXX. HOLDS FOR GOFF.

What there is for Tammany in a Deal with the Grace Democracy.

As a result of the failure of the Committee of LXX. and delegations from the various Anti-Tammany organizations last night to agree upon John W. Goff as a union candidate for Mayor, it is almost certain that the Republican County Convention to-night will invite the Independent County organization, the Anti-Tammany organization and the Good Government Clubs' delegates to join with it in placing a mixed ticket in the field, and make a bold bid for the support of the reform element of the local Democracy.

Only one thing is said to-day, can prevent such action, and that one thing will be the decision of the LXX. to name a Republican for Mayor. This stand has been taken for the purpose, it is declared, of defeating the Harmony deal by which Mr. Grace expects to name the county ticket and secure for it the endorsement of Tammany Hall.

If the LXX. refuse to do this the Republican Convention, unless present plans are changed, will put in the field a ticket like this:

For Mayor—WILLIAM L. STRONG.
For President of the Board of Aldermen—ALFRED R. CUNNINGHAM.
For Sheriff—The choice of an anti-Tammany organization.
For Recorder—JOHN W. GOFF.
For Judge of the Superior Court—The choice of anti-Tammany organizations.
For Coroner—Two Independent Democrats.

It is expected that this combination will be sufficiently strong to know under any sort of a local ticket the Grace-Hill-Tammany Dealers can get in the field. The Republicans claim to have 100,000 votes, the Independent Tammany Organization, 50,000, and the O'Brienites, 25,000, a total of 180,000. It is expected that the ticket outlined would catch at least 15,000 of the "floating" votes—that is, the votes of 15,000 persons not associated with either of the big parties—making a grand total of 175,000 votes. In 1890, when Hugh J. Grant was the Tammany nominee, 18,000, and the O'Brienites, 25,000, a total of 43,000 votes. It is expected that in that election at least 20,000 fraudulent votes were cast in this city. It is not believed that Tammany, in this election, will be able to find so many men willing to take the chance of going to prison for 12 as it did in 1888, and so the Republican managers feel confident that they can win with the sort of hybrid ticket suggested.

All this, however, in the event of the LXX. refusing to agree on a Republican for Mayor.

It is almost certain that John W. Goff has been invited to accept the nomination for Mayor. The action of the LXX. last night indicates that that body is not prepared to attempt to force Mr. Goff upon the conference, even though Mr. Grace would like to have it do so.

It leaked out to-day that Mr. Grace's agents worked hard to get the LXX. to accept Mr. Goff, and the vote by which that acceptance was agreed upon shows that only a minority of the LXX. voted in favor of presenting Mr. Goff's name to the conference.

Only sixty members of the LXX. took part in the meeting, at which it was decided to present Mr. Goff's name. Of these sixty there were twenty who refused to vote, twenty-four who voted for Mr. Goff and sixteen who voted against him.

Rev. Dr. Parkhurst called upon Mr. Goff in his office to-day and urged him to come out with a positive refusal to run for Mayor. It was pointed out to him that the opposition to Tammany would be reconverted in the United Charities Building, and there the final struggle will take place.

There was a report current downtown (Continued on Sixth Page.)

DRANK GIN, NOT POISON.

Mrs. Fissel Seared Her Husband and Had to Go to an Hospital.

"I'd rather be dead than endure this life any longer," screamed handsome Mrs. Emma Fissel, on the top floor of the tenement at 430 East Sixteenth street, this morning.

She has been married only six months, and for much of that time her husband, Irving Fissel, has been out of work, while she supported both as a seamstress and as a model.

He then offered to use his influence to secure a division of the local offices in which the Shepards should share. This offer was also refused.

The Senator then instructed his agents to say to Mr. Shepard that his stand in favor of a third ticket indicated that nothing would suit him but the privilege of naming the Democratic candidate for Governor, and that Mr. Hill was willing to decline the nomination and let the Anti select the candidate, if by so doing harmony could be secured.

Mr. Shepard didn't accept this either. He may have thought the Senator made the offer as a fine piece of sarcasm, but it is believed in other quarters that Mr. Hill made it in good faith.

Then what did Mr. Shepard want? Nothing, that is, nothing but fight, as the editorial in question seems to indicate to Mr. Hill.

It may be set down as a fact that this last offer of Mr. Hill caused the talk that he intended to decline the nomination in favor of Justice Gaynor.

The Senator was up bright and early this morning and ready for the political business ahead of him. The only visitors at his rooms in the Hotel Normandie were Bourke Cockran and Col. George B. McClellan.

Cockran dropped in at 9 o'clock, and was immediately shown up to the Senator's apartments. He was followed by McClellan half an hour later.

The three held a consultation on the political situation, which lasted for over two hours.

There were no other callers of prominence, and nothing occurred to interrupt the council of the three leaders.

At Democratic headquarters, at the Park Avenue Hotel, it was given out that Secretary Charles De Forest had gone to Albany to get together a stock of tables and chairs and other paraphernalia necessary to the furnishing of the apartments. He will return to-night.

Just before noon Bourke Cockran left Mr. Hill and hurried downtown. His evident haste gave rise to a suspicion that he carried instructions from Senator Hill to some of the Tammany leaders.

Mr. Hill then drove over to the Murdock Hill Hotel with Railroad Commissioner Beardsley, presumably for a conference with Major Hinckley.

During his absence District Attorney Ridgway and State Committee member Hill, of Brooklyn, waited for the Senator's return. Mr. Ridgway was asked some questions by an Evening World reporter about the political situation in the County. Mr. Ridgway declined to talk on the subject, saying that he had hurried away from his court duties to see Mr. Hill, and hadn't time to discuss politics.

Upon leaving Senator Hill Bourke Cockran went direct to the City Hall, where he met Mayor Gilroy, President of the Police Board James J. Martin and Corporation Counsel Clark, of the Tammany Committee.

Julius Dugro and De Lancey Nicoll, ranged all the gentlemen in the room. All the gentlemen in the room were in Mayor Gilroy's private office, which could not be ascertained. The appearance upon the scene of Judge Dugro created some commotion, as it was his first visit to the City Hall in years.

WESTCHESTER TICKET.

Republicans Name Candidates for the County Offices.

(Special to The Evening World.)
WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Oct. 5.—The Westchester County Republican Convention, which was held here yesterday, nominated the following candidates:

For Surrogate—Theodore H. Silkman, of Yonkers.
For Sheriff—Adrian Johnson, of Rye.
For Coroner—Dr. E. A. Birch, of White Plains.
For Justice of Sessions—E. B. Kear, of Yorktown.
There was a hot contest for the nomination for Sheriff, and the names of half a dozen candidates were presented to the Convention.

The Congressional Convention of the John E. Milholland organization for the Fifteenth Congressional District was held at 250 Third avenue last evening.

Samuel R. Stearns, of the Twenty-fourth Assembly District, was elected Chairman. Mr. Daly, of the Twenty-sixth Assembly District, and J. Diamond, of the Twenty-seventh Assembly District, were elected Secretaries.

The Convention adopted a resolution appointing a Conference Committee, composed of James B. Kilholmer, D. A. B. Cassari, James McWilliams, Samuel K. Stearns and Thomas Lusk, to confer with the regulars on the subject of subject to the call of the Chair.

A SANCHO FOR QUIGG.

Leader Leary Will Now Devote More Time to His Chief.

William Leary, the fiery young Republican leader from the Sixteenth District, who is chief engineer of the Quigg Mayorality boom, has resigned his position in the United States District-Attorney's office in order to the better be able to attend to the interests of Mr. Quigg and Republican politics.

Mr. Leary held a responsible clerical position under the appointment of United States District-Attorney Mitchell, but sent in his resignation as soon as Mr. Mitchell took office. It has just been accepted.

Want McCall for Congress.

The Tammany leaders in the Fifteenth Congressional District have stated Ambrose C. McCall to succeed Congressman Lister Straus. Mr. McCall is a brother of President John A. McCall, of the New York Life Insurance Company. State Senator Joseph A. Cantor is also said to be after the nomination.

Downtown Republicans to Meet.

A special meeting of the Republican Organization of the First Assembly District will be held to-night at Grace's Hall, 212 Greenwich street. John H. Milholland and others will make addresses.

Anti-Poison Ticket in Nebraska.

(By Associated Press.)
OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 5.—Through Administration Democratic circles it was announced last night that a ticket was to be placed in the field by a position representing the views of the so-called Anti-Poison Democratic Union of the State, five hundred signatures are necessary to accomplish this.

There Is No Reason

500,000 PEOPLE EVERY DAY.

Why Any One Should

TO-MORROW IS Situation Day and Situation Ads. go FREE IN THE Evening World.

Be With- out Work.

FOR 10 CENTS You Can Surely Get the Employment You Want.

Two Million Readers Daily.

There Is No Reason

500,000 PEOPLE EVERY DAY.

Why Any One Should

TO-MORROW IS Situation Day and Situation Ads. go FREE IN THE Evening World.

Be With- out Work.

FOR 10 CENTS You Can Surely Get the Employment You Want.

Two Million Readers Daily.

There Is No Reason

500,000 PEOPLE EVERY DAY.

Why Any One Should

TO-MORROW IS Situation Day and Situation Ads. go FREE IN THE Evening World.

Be With- out Work.

FOR 10 CENTS You Can Surely Get the Employment You Want.

Two Million Readers Daily.

There Is No Reason

500,000 PEOPLE EVERY DAY.

Why Any One Should

TO-MORROW IS Situation Day and Situation Ads. go FREE IN THE Evening World.

Be With- out Work.

FOR 10 CENTS You Can Surely Get the Employment You Want.

Two Million Readers Daily.

There Is No Reason

500,000 PEOPLE EVERY DAY.

Why Any One Should

TO-MORROW IS Situation Day and Situation Ads. go FREE IN THE Evening World.

Be With- out Work.

FOR 10 CENTS You Can Surely Get the Employment You Want.

Two Million Readers Daily.

There Is No Reason

500,000 PEOPLE EVERY DAY.

Why Any One Should

TO-MORROW IS Situation Day and Situation Ads. go FREE IN THE Evening World.

Be With- out Work.

FOR 10 CENTS You Can Surely Get the Employment You Want.

Two Million Readers Daily.